A Thousand Miles

A Million Smiles

" A Thousand Miles, A Million Smiles" is a proposed CSR project to be carried out by SLMC. The primary idea is to take the magic to the masses especially people living in remote areas. Most of these people have never seen magic performed live. According to Devsiri Fernando who has come up with this concept it is envisaged that the SLMC will travel a thousand miles within Sri Lanka and by carrying out performances throughout the tour, bring smiles to at least a million people along the way.

As a precursor trial there will be a magic show conducted in Killinochchi on 17th November at 10 a.m. On the way back to Colombo at 3 p.m. another show will be held at Pulivakkulam.

For more details of this event and to participate, please contact Rohan Jayasekera.

Also he hopes to speak to you about marketing yourself in order to get magic shows. With the Christmas season coming it may be very useful for professional magicians and also magicians who want to become professional.

With the constructions and the improvements done to the 156 premises our funds have decreased to a very low level. the primary purpose of the show will be fund collection. Besides magic performances it is planned to have some other performers too.

Tickets are priced at only 100/= and 200/= in order to fill the 400 seats available at the venue. Please help VP Marketing Rohith Silva along with Treasurer Wijesinghe, VP Suranjith, VP Rohan and stage specialist Kamal Shantha in what ever way possible to make this a resounding success. They are specially looking for help in the sale of tickets and the collection of souvenir ads

Criss Angel Is Engaged!

And, presto! Criss Angel is going to be a hubby again! The illusionist, 43, is engaged to Sandra Gonzalez. The couple met four years ago on the set of Angel's A&E hit Mindfreak.

Angel (real name: Christopher Nicholas Sarantakos) popped the question during a romantic trip to Cabo San Lucas with a dazzling ring -- featuring a flawless 5-carat diamond set in a traditional platinum setting. No date has yet been set for the wedding.

It will be the second marriage for Criss, who divorced first wife JoAnn in 2005.
